Rules

- Participants may only participate in one chamber music group this summer
- Participants must attend the final recital
- If you'd like to register, but have conflicts with summer music camp or other out of town commitments, please email David to discuss if registration is appropriate
- Participation in social activities is not a requirement, but strongly encouraged
- Participants must work with teacher & other chamber music group members to schedule 6 coachings. Must complete all 6 coachings between June 19 and July 30. If coachings are not completed by July 30, your group forfeits the coachings in the future. It is recommended to space the coachings out once per week, but not required.
- All coachings will take place at the location to be decided by the coach.
- Tuition must be received no later than June 19 to participate. If this poses difficulty, or you would like to request an alternate payment plan, please contact David no later than June 19.
- Tuition will not be refundable under any circumstances with the exception of the following:
 - severe injury or illness or family emergency
 - cancellation on David's behalf of the summer chamber music program due to low enrollment
- Behavior problems will not be tolerated. If your child cannot cooperate or follow instructions from teachers, then they will receive a warning. Persistent behavior problems will result in dismissal from the program without refund of tuition.
